

«This method has struck several persons as being fallacious because geometrical measurement has not any relation to money or to time; yet here it is made to represent both.»

